First 30 Days of Season 35

Announcements ChaoticLu Jul 1, 2024

Welcome to the Season of The Talisman! with exciting news, sweepstakes, and a wide array of fun activities. Let’s make this Season an unforgettable adventure!

Time to gather your friends, gear up, and dive into this new adventure. Let’s see what’s going on inside the program:

Xbox Ambassador Developer Connections: Studio Accessibility

On June 27th we joined with different teams from Xbox, such as Rare Ltd, Turn 10 Studios, and The Coalition.

This was an exclusive opportunity for Ambassadors to dive deep with studio experts to uncover the intent, importance, and impact that inclusive experiences have on the gaming community. These teams helped us understand the ins and outs of accessible gaming, and how Xbox and its studios are leading the way for the future.

If you missed this event, make sure to join the Xbox Ambassadors Discord server to get on top of all updates/announcements from the Program!

Xbox Ambassadors Accessibility Ally Badge

The Xbox Ambassador Accessibility Ally badge is now live on Xbox Profiles! You can earn the badge by completing 100 Accessibility Quests and 10 Knowledge Checks in the Accessibility Explorer Path on the Xbox Ambassadors website.

If you've been unable to reach 100 Quests after some of our Accessibility Quests expired, don't worry—we'll continue adding new Quests to the Xbox Accessibility Explorer Path every Season.

Thank you all for your passion around gaming accessibility. We built this Xbox profile badge based on your feedback and we're excited to see it out in the wild!

Sweepstakes coming your way!

You know we're always trying to bring back exclusive games for our Sweepstakes, and before Season 34 ended, we gave away 10 codes for Shin Megami Tensei V: Vengeance Digital Deluxe Edition.

This Edition included the base game with all purchasable DLC content, including three Mitama items and two Demon Subquests.

Remember to keep an eye on our Sweepstakes website to participate for a chance to win amazing AAA titles!

As the Season of The Journey comes to an end, we’re excited for what lies ahead in Season 35. Stay tuned for more updates and announcements, including more thrilling surprises for you.
